

Heidi Jane | Empath in The City

Assisting highly sensitive people with business and life strategies

You may recognise Heidi Jane from Network Seven Australia's Reality Show, 'The One' | Search for Australia's Most Gifted Psychic 2011, where she completed eight weeks of on air challenges to ultimately place as a top three finalist.

You may also know her as the "voice" on Gold FM, (Austereo, Southern Cross Network) where she shared intuitive advice to callers for over six years on the breakfast show, with Richard, Bridge and Spida.

No matter how you know Heidi, you would understand that she has achieved many accomplishments, including working with world-renowned thought leaders, featuring in a documentary, authoring two books, and winning a 'Stevie', an international, women in business award.

Heidi is the founder of The International Institute of Advanced Intuition, where she creates and teaches cutting edge, transformational content, including the Diploma of Intuitive Dynamix®, The Empathic Entrepreneur and The Empaths Self-Mastery Program.

Heidi is also dedicated to "renovating your reality", encouraging you to shift your limitations, belief systems and mind chatter, through progressive products and platforms, such as meditations, workshops and specialised on-line training.

As an Empath Wellness Coach, Heidi instills a sense of liberation in the lives of her highly sensitive clients, through workshops and sessions, as they access their own powerful inner tool-box to make successful, congruent and authentic choices.

Heidi is Australia's best-known and most respected Empath Wellness Advocate and Intuition Expert.

Heidi always works from her deep empathy for her clients, with a healthy dose of practical advice and straight talking, both in the private and public arena, and is a gifted and inspiring presenter, often featured in the media.
